CELEBRATE THE HOLIDAY'S WITH CONCORDIA CONSERVATORY'S "A CHRISTMAS CAROL" ITS ANNUAL COMMUNITY MUSICAL

Bronxville, NY—More than 85 local students will perform in a holiday production of the musical, A CHRISTMAS CAROL, presented by Concordia Conservatory from December 6-8 at the Schoenfeld Campus Center at Concordia College, Bronxville.

All performers and crew members are from the region, hailing from the Bronx, Bronxville, Cos Cob, Eastchester, Larchmont, Mount Vernon, Pelham, New Rochelle, Old Greenwich, Scarsdale, Tuckahoe and Yonkers.

This is the 14th annual musical production for the Conservatory, which features children ages 8-18 who complete an audition and interview to participate. The productions are part of the Conservatory's tuition-free community outreach program. The yearly musicals are funded through private donations to Concordia Conservatory.

A CHRISTMAS CAROL is based on the Charles Dickens' holiday classic. It centers around Ebenezer Scrooge, a miserable old man who mistreats everyone in his life. Mr. Scrooge is transformed by the spirit of Christmas when he receives a visit from three ghosts on Christmas Eve.

The cast and crew are led by stage director Kathleen Suss, music director Greg Suss, with set designer Eric Zoback, lighting designer John Flanagan and Choreographer Jen Littlefield. Marcy Damasco and Sharon Shearon are the production's producers.
